

In its short existence, Portuguese festival, Semibreve, has built a formidable reputation for being one of the most exciting annual events on the international exploratory music and digital arts calendar. In previous editions, Semibreve has presented unique collaborations by some of the most revered electronic music artists from around the world as well as presenting a programme of new work produced in the digital art's field.

Semibreve was named one of most interesting festivals in the world by Dazed and Confused Magazine.

The 8th edition, will feature once again the Semibreve Award sponsored by Edigma a Portuguese company leader in the development of interactive experiences, multi-touch technology and digital signage projects.

This award is established to celebrate and promote the creation of works that explore the interactivity, sound and image supported through the use of digital technologies. The winner will have the work exhibited during the 2018 edition of the festival and at Edigma's showroom in Lisbon.
